Near the main house, there is the guest house, recently renovated, maintaining the original architectural features and respecting the traditional elements of the island. Both houses have a total of 9 bedrooms with 7 bathrooms.

Behind these buildings there is a recreation area with a garden and a huge swimming pool with a water surface of 170 m², equipped with changing rooms, bathrooms, barbecue and a small kitchen.

The total built area,
including houses,
warehouses, barns,
stables and other
buildings is approx.
1,715 m².

On the perimeter you can find several areas of forest, where pine and holm oak predominate, and other areas of cultivation, mainly cereals, which are separated by the characteristic “paret seca” walls typical of the island. The roads and trails, which run throughout the property, are, like the walls, in a good state of conservation.

The main houses are located in the elevated areas of the estate, which facilitates open views to the sea.
